FIREMEN OF COUNTY MEET AT MIDWAY

The 39th annual convention of the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association got underway this morning at the Conewago Twp. Elementary School with the Midway Fire Company as host.

Chaplain Clarence D. Deardorff conducted the devotions opening the sessions at 10 o'clock today. George R. Becker, president of the Midway Volunteer Fire Company, gave the address of welcome.

Business during the morning included discussion of a proposal to amend the constitution of the organization to permit firemen who have been members for 20 years or more and then lose their membership in their home company by moving out of the area, or, as in the case of the Reaser House Co. members, by the dissolution of the company, to continue as members of the county association.

TO DEDICATE HALL
This afternoon Rev. Fr. Richard Hartnett, of Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Catholic Church, McSherrystown, is scheduled to give the memorial address honoring deceased firemen. Election of officers and a brief talk by Judge W. C. Sheely are also scheduled for the afternoon.

The annual parade will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Midway. Queen of the parade will be Judy Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Valentine, Emmitsburg, who was named queen of the Adams County Fire Police Association at a contest held at the Midway Fire Company carnival Friday night. Members of her court will include Jane Trostle, of Arendtsville, and Elaine Miller, Midway. They are scheduled to appear on a special "queen's float" in the parade.

Dedication of the new Midway fire hall is scheduled to take place following the parade.

Revolt Against Argentine's Frondizi Easily Squelched

By NAON ABRAMOVICH
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A vest-pocket midnight revolt against President Arturo Frondizi came to an abrupt, bloodless end early today as the last rebel holdouts surrendered.

Diehards among the 80-man rebel band gave themselves up at 6:15 a.m. without firing a shot after receiving a surrender ultimatum from troops who ringed the telephone exchange they had seized shortly before midnight. Troops had trained a cannon on the building.

Earlier the rest of the insurgents had surrendered less than five hours after they seized the government radio station to broadcast claims they were taking over the government.

NO POPULAR SUPPORT
The rebels, who aroused no popular support, have not been clearly identified as to political tint. One of the group claimed they were anti-Communist nationalists with no political links.

3 Of 8 In Car Hurt As Auto Rolls Over

Mrs. Mary Smith, 39, Abbottstown, suffered a possible back injury and two of her children were bruised when a car in which they were passengers overturned near the Sibert garage between Hunterstown and New Chester at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

State police said Wilmer E. Shoff, 22, York, was driving the 1953 vehicle, with eight passengers in the car, when he lost control while seeking to make a left turn. The car upset. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $200. The Gettysburg ambulance brought Mrs. Smith and her three children to the hospital here for treatment. The original report said the injured persons were pinned in the car. Gettysburg firemen, in the rescue truck, who had just returned from a search for a youth west of town, started for the scene but turned back when the ambulance on arrival found the report that persons were pinned in the car was unfounded.

LOCAL YOUTH HURT IN CRASH; BOY IS JAILED

Gettysburg firemen were called when a 16-year-old Gettysburg High School student, Edwin S. Longanecker Jr., disappeared following an auto accident at 12:25 o'clock this morning on the Fairfield Rd. across the borough line. He was found by firemen at 1:30 o'clock approximately midway between the scene of the accident and his home.

Removed to the Warner Hospital, his condition was described as "satisfactory" later this morning.

When found by firemen he was bleeding profusely from a cut in the forehead.

The Longanecker youth was a passenger in a car driven by Ronald L. Hankey, 19, McKnightstown, who suffered bruises and cuts when his auto rolled over into a four-foot-deep ditch. The car was demolished. Borough police brought a reckless driving charge against Hankey, who, following a hearing before Justice of the Peace John Whitman this morning, was placed in jail in default of a $25 fine and costs.

POLICE ARE CALLED

Borough Policemen Paul B. Shealer and Ray Breighner were called to the scene by Officer Shealer's wife, who heard the crash. They said Hankey's car, being driven west, veered across the highway twice, hit a highway sign, then veered across the road again and rolled into the ditch near the John C. Bream home.

Hankey told police he was alone, Officer Shealer said. About that time Richard E. Doersom, who lives nearby, arrived on the scene and said he had seen a youth lying on the lawn nearby. The ambulance arrived moments later and attendants went to the spot where Doersom had seen the Longanecker youth.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Shortly thereafter another resident of the Woodcrest area reported seeing the Longanecker youth going across a lawn near her home.

Police called the Longanecker home, but the youth was not there.

About 1:15 o'clock firemen were called to join the search and found Longanecker lying unconscious in a field about a quarter mile from the scene of the accident. He had collapsed on the bank of a water course. He was removed to the hospital.

Justice Whitman said that Hankey, in entering his guilty plea, said that he and Longanecker were enroute to Longanecker's home when the accident occurred.

On July 13 the board ordered suspension of the license for 20 days beginning August 8. Later the compromise of the fine in lieu of suspension was established.

Hunterstown Branch Of Adams County Library Busy In New Quarters With Staff Of Three Volunteers

The Hunterstown Library, which began nearly six years ago with a few armfuls of books and high hopes has expanded to a collection of 1,200 volumes with a volunteer staff of three, regular reading hours—and hopes still are high for expanding services in the future.

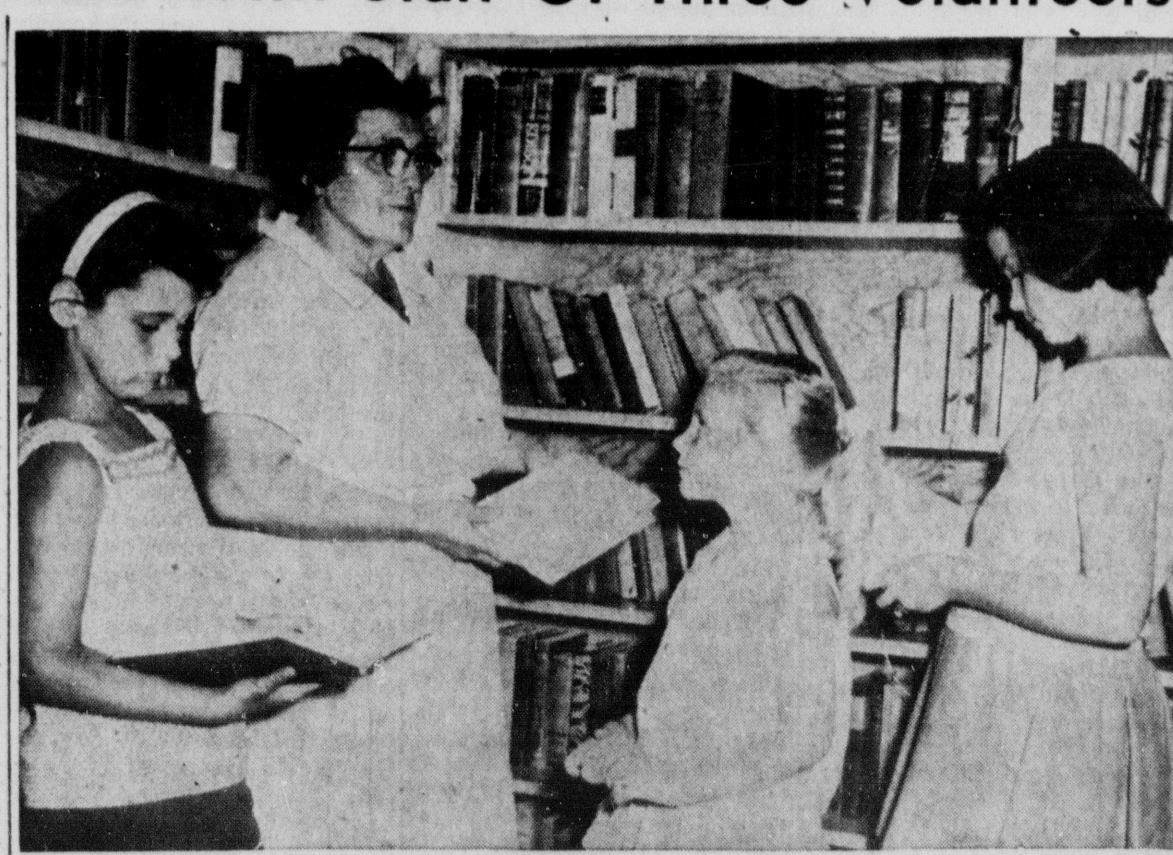

Hand-sewn aprons, made by Mrs. Dora M. Ford of Hunterstown, the chief librarian, custodian and "spark plug" of the library, and a few rummage sales have provided the funds that paid for new shelving and paid the rent six months in advance for the library's new quarters.

Since May the library has occupied two front rooms in the building that formerly housed the Fogle store and later was a Civil War museum. Only recently, the new shelving was completed and the staff is kept busy in spare time processing books that have been acquired.

MADE 300 APRONS

"We're going to get to the place soon where we can buy more new books," Mrs. Ford said as she told of plans for raising more funds for the library.

GOP PROTESTS REDISTRICTING BY DEMOCRATS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, and Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., Friday night attacked the Democratic party's congressional reapportionment plan at a protest rally in nearby Cheltenham attended by 300 persons.

Bloom said the Republicans would rather run every Pennsylvania congressman at large rather than submit to what he termed the "political outrage" of the Democratic reapportionment plan.

Schweiker, who represents Montgomery County, said the plan would deny both city and suburbs equitable representation.

Under the plan, sections of Delaware and Bucks counties would be added to Philadelphia congressional districts to help decrease the number of seats from 30 to 27 as a result of population losses in the state.

ASKS 'FAIR PLAY'

Schweiker said it is impossible for a member of the House of Representatives in many instances to reflect both city and suburban interests at one and the same time. Yet, he added, the plan he said was proposed by Rep. William J. Green Jr., Philadelphia Democratic chairman, would make such a demand on Philadelphia congressmen.

Schweiker said the GOP seeks what he termed only fair play in the issue. He added:

"We would give up one Republican representative and let the Democrats give up one; let the third be a toss up and let the people decide."

The rally was sponsored by the newly formed Republican Montgomery County Anti-Annexation Committee.

Bloom described the plan as "an arrogant attempt to justify retaining six congressmen in Philadelphia."

Under the 1960 census, Philadelphia's population would warrant only five congressional seats. It has six now.

Bloom also maintained that Gov. David L. Lawrence was trying to "steal" Pittsburgh's suburbs by moving GOP wards into Democratic districts.

REVOLT SCARE IN ARGENTINA IS THROTTLED

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay, (AP)—The revolt scare in Argentina underlined today the urgency of President Kennedy's proposals to help cure Latin America's social and economic ills. But it did not interrupt deliberations at the Inter-American Economic Conference here.

Delegates deliberating on how to get Kennedy's $20-billion Alliance for Progress program into motion were acutely aware that the attempted uprisings like the abortive Argentine coup Friday night could touch off chain reactions in the countries of this troubled continent.

Reports of the revolt caused a wave of uneasiness until the Buenos Aires government announced the uprising had failed and blamed the heeds.

"NOTHING TO FEAR"

Argentine Economic Minister Roberto Alemann offered to rush home. His government assured him there was nothing to fear and instructed him to continue his work at the conference.

Squabbles among the Latin American nations threatened to hold up progress at the conference, but a concession by Argentina raised hopes of a solution.

Argentina had balked at signing a final conference declaration unless the meeting dropped the idea of a task force to supervise the development programs of nations to receive aid. The Argentines felt this would compromise their sovereignty and freedom of choice in the program.

The smaller Latin-American countries support the idea of a central commission as a way to safeguard their interests.

After a day of wrangling, Argentina agreed to go along with a new proposal sponsored by Brazil, Mexico, Chile and Colombia.

This plan would provide for a nine-man panel of experts to be named by inter-American agencies to advise—but not direct—the development projects of individual nations. The panel would have no veto power over nations applying for alliance funds.

DIVORCE GRANTED

KROLL LEADS LINKS STARS

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Lots of folks spend their vacations playing golf and Ted Kroll is no exception.

The big difference is that while most play entirely for fun, the 42-year-old Kroll plays strictly for cash, and against the world's toughest competition.

Even so, the veteran pro is doing better than all right. In fact, he's in front today at the halfway mark in the 72-hole Insurance City Open, which carries a $4,300 top prize.

SETTING PACE

The 5-8, 160-pound, balding Kroll, is setting the pace with a 36-hole total of 129, 13 under par at the 6,524-yard Wethersfield Country Club, mainly because of a 30-32-62 he shot Friday.

His magic putter rocketed him four strokes ahead of his nearest challengers.

The original field of 151 has been cut to the 60 leading pros and ties for today's third round on the tight, par 71 course.

PLEADS GUILTY

KENNEDY WILL WORK AT CAPE

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy, cheered by a key Senate victory for his long-range foreign aid program, tackled some homework at his summer home today and hoped to get in some rest and relaxation.

Kennedy brought with him from Washington a stack of documents, mostly dealing with the Berlin crisis.

If the weather improved, he hoped to put them aside long enough to get in a cruise on Nantucket Sound. This is his seventh Cape Cod weekend in a row.

Soon after his arrival, Kennedy got word the Senate had defeated an amendment sponsored by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., to deny him long-range authority to lend foreign aid funds borrowed from the Treasury without annual congressional approval.

"The President was extremely gratified by the vote in the Senate tonight," said press secretary Pierre Salinger, "and particularly pleased by the bipartisan aspects of that vote."

Ten Republicans voted against the amendment.

TRAIN SERVICE DELUXE ABROAD

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP)—Twenty minutes after she had settled into her seat on an express train, housewife Alice Churchill suddenly remembered she had left out of the oven.

A train porter knew about a signal box down the line. Mrs. Churchill scribbled a note, the porter weighted it with a penny, threw it at the box as the train whizzed by.

Signalman John Westwood saw the fluttering bit of paper. He followed instructions to call the Birmingham police station where Mrs. Churchill's daughter, Vera, works.

"Tell Vera the rice pudding is in the oven," said the message.

Vera dashed home.

"The pudding was just nicely done and it tastes lovely," Vera reported.

DEFER ACTION ON MONGOLIA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, after careful study, has decided not to set up diplomatic relations with Outer Mongolia at this time.

The State Department announcement Friday said: "We believe that in view of the existing world situation it is in the best interest of the United States to suspend further exploration of that matter at this time."

Outer Mongolia, a sprawling desert and mountain land about one-sixth the size of the United States, has a population of about 1 million.

It lies between Red China and the Soviet Union and advocates of U.S. recognition said a U.S. embassy at Ulan Bator, the Mongolian capital, would provide a useful listening post deep inside Communist territory.

Nationalist China expressed strong opposition to U.S. recognition of Outer Mongolia and this view drew support from some senators, mostly Republicans.

ELUDE CHAIR FOR 120 DAYS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Elizabeth Ann Duncan, 56, and the two men convicted with her in the jealousy slaying of her daughter-in-law may have at least 120 days to fight for their lives. They had been scheduled to die Wednesday.

The U.S. Court of Appeals Friday granted stay of execution to Mrs. Duncan. Later the U.S. District Court delayed the executions of Augustine Baldonado, 27, and Luis Moya, 22.

The off-odd gray-haired mother who loved her son so much she wouldn't share him with another woman, was saved—at least temporarily—from the San Quentin Prison gas chamber by the son, Frank, 32, a Los Angeles attorney, and lawyer Arthur A. Warner.

They contended newspaper publicity inflamed Ventura residents and influenced the jurors in the 1958 Ventura County trial. Mrs. Duncan was convicted of hiring Baldonado and Moya to beat, choke and finally bury the still-quivering body of Olga Duncan, Frank's pregnant wife.

Both the U.S. and California Supreme Courts had rejected earlier appeals.

Judge Frederick G. Hamley of the U.S. Court of Appeals here said the stay order for Mrs. Duncan was issued because the U.S. District Court at Los Angeles gave her attorneys permission to file an appeal with the U.S. Court of Appeals.

SANGSTER MAY BE ENGLAND'S BEST NETTER

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—Mike Sangster, touted as Great Britain's best tennis player since Fred Perry, today shrugged off such praise prior to his Wimbledon rematch with U.S. Davis cupper Chuck McKinley in the semifinals of the Eastern Grass Court Championships.

"They've said that about everybody who looks like he might be a good player," said Sangster. "I don't pay much attention to it."

But the tennis players are paying attention to Sangster, especially to his blazing serve. The 20-year-old Britisher bombarded Donald Dell, U.S. Clay Court runner-up 6-3, 10-8 while McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., toppled Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, 9-7, 6-3 in Friday's semifinals.

The survivor of the McKinley-Sangster match will face the winner of the other semifinal between fifth-seeded Dennis Ralston, the 19-year-old Davis cupper from Bakersfield, Calif., and unseeded, 19-year-old Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla.

In the women's division, second-seeded Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., opposes fourth-seeded Edda Buding of Germany to qualify for the final against the 18-year-old defending champion, U.S. Wightman cupper Karen Hantze from Chula Vista, Calif.

PACKERS BEAT DALLAS 30-7; DETROIT WINS

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers, a stand-pat club with four aces, began the exhibition phase of the National Football League season by whipping the opposition with the same stacked deck that carried them to the Western Conference championship last year.

The Packers, one of three NFL clubs that did not acquire any veterans in off-season trades, relied on quarterback Bart Starr and running mates Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor and Tom Moore to overwhelm the Dallas Cowboys 30-7 last night.

LIONS BEAT BROWNS

In other NFL pre-season tests, the Detroit Lions blasted the Cleveland Browns 35-7 and the Los Angeles Rams defeated the Washington Redskins 26-7. Houston trounced Oakland 35-17 in the only American Football League tuneup scheduled.

Starr, designated the Packers' No. 1 signal-caller when Lamar McHan was traded for a future draft choice, responded with a five-yard touchdown pass to Hornung and set up two more with his accurate aerials.

Taylor scored on a two-yard plunge, kicked a 16-yard field goal and booted three extra points. Moore added two touchdowns on runs of five and six yards against a Dallas club that tailed on an 80-yard pass play from Eddie LeBaron to Frank Clarke.

THREE TD TOSSES

Earl Morrall replaced Jim Ninkowski at the quarterback post for the Lions in the second period and immediately beat the Browns with three TD tosses. Terry Barr pulled in 59 and 22 yards before Jim Gibbons grabbed a 16-yard flip.

Danny Villanueva kicked field goals of 15, 30, 37 and 42 yards to give the Rams a 12-0 edge before the Redskins hit the scoreboard with a 25-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi to Fred Dugan. Los Angeles then tied it with two fourth quarter TDs.

The AFL champion Oilers led the Raiders only 14-10 at the half, but pulled away in the final two periods.

"FIRE OF HATE"

Hate is a consuming fire... burning all who feel its flame... truly it's a lethal weapon... more than worthy of the name... those who use this tool of Satan... foster pain and misery... hate is cruel and undermining... with this fact you must agree... yet it fills the world around us... touching both the great and small... hate can make a weak heart weaker... it can cause the strong to fall... what, then, can we do to quell it... how can we put the fire out... there is but one way to douse it... it will work without a doubt... pray each time you feel its presence... prayer will surely seal its fate... God and only God can conquer... the consuming fire of hate.

CITY TRUCKS BATTLE CROWD IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A city truck loaded with hot ashes early today led 65 trucks hauling dirt from the mall excavation in downtown Cleveland through a human blockade of some 200 persons thrown across a dirt road leading to the dumping area in the Garden Valley project.

Angry residents, protesting the late operation of the trucks, threw rocks at the vehicles and at policemen assisting them through the blockade. A number of arrests were made. Several police cars were damaged.

Police responded to rock throwing with night sticks. Several residents reportedly were hit and driven from the road they had held from the trucks for nearly three hours.

SPED FROM SCENE

The trucks rushed into the dumping area, quickly disposed of their loads of dirt and then sped from the scene.

The dirt taken from the mall, where an excavation is being made for an underground exhibition hall, is being dumped in the Kingsbury Run dump area as a fill operation.

Residents have complained that the trucks operate as late as 3 a.m. each day, keeping them awake. They also want a fence placed along the road leading to the dump area to protect children in a small playground near the road.

STUFF BODY INTO CAR TRUNK

CHICAGO (AP)—The body of a 300-pound collector for loan sharks was found stuffed in the trunk of an abandoned car in downtown Chicago Friday night.

Police identified the man as William (Action) Jackson, 40, an ex-convict. He apparently was tortured and beaten to death, police said.

Jackson was one of those questioned in the death of Ralph Delgenio, 37, who was found shot to death in a car in downtown Chicago June 19, detectives said. Police said Jackson was the 11th victim of so-called "gang style" slayings since November.

Police said Delgenio was heavily in debt to gangland money lenders. They described Jackson as a "juice man," or collector, for loan sharks and said he had a police record dating back to 1941.

through making and selling satin sheets ("They're wonderful for hot weather sleeping") and hand-made quilts. Meanwhile the apron making is continued by Mrs. Ford who has become so adept at the art that she says she can make an attractive, neatly edged apron in several designs and in a wide variety of colors and prints in a half hour. They sell for $1 to $1.50. She has made 300 of the aprons so far.

The next library benefit rummage sale will be held in the GAR post room on E. Middle St. here Saturday, November 11.

One end of the main library room is furnished with a score of secondhand school desks and seats, often used by the non-denominational Good News Club which meets once a week during the school year under Mrs. Ford's leadership. There have been as many as 40 boys and girls enrolled. Miss Carroll Barrell is the club teacher.

PLAN CHOIR, STORY HOUR

There are plans for a story hour and a junior choir that will use the library for rehearsal sessions. One corner is reserved for a piano when that item is donated or there are funds to pay for one.

The library has 131 registered borrowers and in July there were 73 book loans while others used the semi-weekly hours the library was open to come in and browse. There are adult readers, too, but most of the borrowers are young people—and that pleases Mrs. Ford for it's the young people of Hunterstown community that she is especially interested in helping.

"We don't have as many books for young readers as we would like," Mrs. Ford said. "We have a lot of adult fiction and about 200 books on loan from the Adams County Public Library."

OPEN TWICE WEEKLY

The library's book collection has been largely donated but many of the books are new and have come to the Hunterstown library from the Hanover Public Library.

The library is open each Tuesday and Friday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock with Mrs. Ford; Mrs. Flo E. Woomey, R. 4, a registered nurse who is in charge of the clerical work for the library, and Mrs. Virginia Criswell, R. 4, staff helper, on hand to help library visitors. Mrs. Merle Taughnbaugh also has served as a staff helper.

The library's history dates back to September, 1955, when the library started with about 100 books loaned by the Adams County Free Library and about an equal number from Mrs. Ford's own collection. It was quartered first in part of the Moore property which once had been the Deatrick store and town post office. Mrs. Ford's only helpers then were children.

Mrs. Ford, who served a term as a member of the board of directors of the Adams County Library, started the Hunterstown branch while she was a member of that board. She is employed now by a dress factory at Bon-neauville. "It's surprising how many bargains I run into when I'm looking for things to help the library," she said.

SAMUEL BRAID IS FIRED FROM $9,454 OFFICE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Samuel Braid of Philadelphia has been fired from his $9,454-a-year post as procurement director of the State Public Welfare Department. Welfare Secretary Mrs. Ruth Grigg Horting announced Braid's dismissal Friday, claiming investigations by the Justice Department showed he was involved in a scheme to defraud the state.

Braid denied the charges.

Mrs. Horting, in a statement, said the alleged fraud concerned a $550 state contract for fireproofing certain kitchen equipment at Wernersville State Hospital. Braid apparently arranged for the job to be done for $225, then paid for the work through an intermediary with the idea of pocketing the balance, Mrs. Horting charged.

FICTITIOUS BIDS

"The contract was signed in the name of a nonexistent company—Penn Building Maintenance Co.—and the three other competitive bids listed on the contract were fictitious," the welfare secretary said.

According to Mrs. Horting, the alleged phony contract was intercepted by the Welfare Department during the course of the investigation. She said Braid, procurement director for the department since 1956, also is being investigated in connection with other matters involving purchases by various department institutions.

This investigation, she said, will reach into all areas connected with Braid's former duties.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department said it plans to confer with the Dauphin County district attorney about possible prosecution of Braid in connection with the Wernersville contract.

Mrs. Horting said Braid, who has been under investigation for several months, will be given a chance to appeal the action.

His dismissal marks the second major firing of a state official in little more than a month. Last July 6, William Kilroy, 34-year-old Philadelphia Democratic ward official, was asked to step down from his $9,500-a-year post as head of the Bureau of Professional Licensing in the Department of Public Instruction. Kilroy was accused of misconduct in office.

1ST BIRTHDAY OF SATELLITE IS OBSERVED

By VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—Echo I, a satellite you can see with the naked eye—observed its first birthday today, still whizzing about the earth months after experts had predicted it would have fallen to a flaming death in the earth's atmosphere.

U.S. experts now estimate the huge balloon satellite, viewed by millions around the world during the past year, may sail around the earth for another year.

Although it has proved much more durable than anticipated, the 100-foot-diameter aluminum-coated sphere is only about two-thirds as effective now as when it was in its prime.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said today that in recent experiments in the bouncing of radio signals off the oversized space ball the average reflected energy was about 40 per cent less than when it was injected into orbit last Aug. 12.

OFFER SEVERAL THEORIES

"Satisfactory transmission of voice, teletype and facsimile communications is still possible," NASA said.

NASA scientists offer several theories as to what has happened to Echo I.

Most agree that the once-smooth surface has become wrinkled with the passage of time and the recurrent transitions from sunlight to darkness and from intense heat to bitter cold.

Some believe it may have shrunk to a diameter of perhaps 70 feet, others suggest that it has lost its spherical symmetry and has taken somewhat the form of a football—and thus distorts signals.

Still others speculate that the extremely thin skin may have been punctured or even riddled by impact with micrometeorites.

During its first year, in which it will have made 4,480 revolutions of the earth and traveled more than 138 million miles, Echo has been used in some 150 significant communications experiments.

Believe Dead Man Fell From Train

ERIE (AP)—A 50-year-old man died Friday 15 minutes after state police officers found him lying unconscious on a railroad track in Harborcreek Twp., about 10 miles south of here.

Officers identified the man from a social security card as William Bridges of Chicago. They believe Bridges was riding on a flat car of a Nickel Plate Railroad freight train and fell off.

Orrtanna

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL
ORRTANNA—Mrs. Helen Rebert was hostess for the Margaret Donaldson Bible Class for its monthly get-together at her home on Wednesday evening. The meeting was combined with a picnic of the class with the following attending as guests: Rev. and Mrs. Merl Long and Mrs. Long's mother of Bendersville; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas Jr., York; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hankey and daughter, Margaret, Fairfield; Orman Rebert, Walter Tressler and Byron Cease.

The regular meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Ruth Donaldson, with a reading entitled "If He Came To Your House" after which she offered prayer.

The scripture reading was given by the hostess who read the 45th Psalm. The secretary and treasurer's reports followed. Jelly and butter have been made by the class and are on sale.

The following readings were presented: "If We Believed in God," Mrs. Mary Tressler; "To Sleep," Mrs. Grace Wetzel; "Seek Ye The Master," Mrs. Lowell Cease; "The Book Our Mother Read," Mrs. Ruth Spence, and "The Quiet People," Mrs. Ruth Donaldson.

The scripture study was on the 24th Chapter of St. Luke. The gift box, donated by Mrs. Ruth Donaldson, was guessed by Mrs. Wetzel. The group also held a box sale from each member which netted the class $3.50.

Mrs. Lowell Cease will be hostess for the next meeting September 18 at her home.

Mrs. George Haines will be leader and Mrs. John Gallagher will be the hostess for the monthly meeting of the WSWs of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church in the church hall Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

RICH SUSPECT IS ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John C. Berkery, 27, free on bail after being convicted in the bizarre Pottsville burglary, Friday night was charged with receiving stolen goods and conspiracy in connection with the alleged looting of a car.

Another man, George R. Smith, 25, also was charged with the same offenses. The two were lodged in jail overnight pending a hearing later today.

A passing off-duty policeman Friday arrested Berkery and Smith as they allegedly rummaged in the trunk of a parked car containing $500 in small change and $300 in cigarettes.

The policeman, Anthony Cin, said he recognized Berkery as one of the two men, stopped his car and gave a passerby a dime to call the police station.

He said the two men jumped into Smith's car, parked behind the other car, when he approached them. He added that Smith tried to throw away a filed-down allen wrench.

OFFICER'S CAR

The car was owned by Laverne Shiffer of Drexel Hill, a retired Army officer now working as a cigarette vending machine operator.

Berkery has been free on $15,000 bail pending an appeal of his conviction of taking some $20,000 in cash and jewelry two years ago from the Pottsville home of John B. Rich, a coal mine owner.

Rich estimated the loss. Police, however, contend the figure was $478,000 in cash.

Yardley Youth Is Killed In Crash

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—David Noel, 19, of Yardley, Pa., died in Mercer Hospital today two hours after his English sports car ran off Pennsylvania route 432 near Woodside, Lower Bucks County, striking a brick wall.

Noel died of head injuries.

A passenger, Robert Dradel, 18, of Morrisville, Pa., was admitted to the hospital in fair condition. The accident occurred about 3 a.m.

TWO CRUSHED TO DEATH BY AUTO, MOWER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A 15-month-old boy crushed to death by an auto driven by his father and a 22-month-old girl who died after being run over by a power mower operated by her father were among eight persons who died Friday in a rash of accidents in Pennsylvania.

Also among the eight victims was another child, a 4-month-old girl who locked herself in a portable ice chest and suffocated.

The 15-month-old boy, Frederick Wood, of Levittown, toddled behind the auto of his father, Sylvester Wood, 29, in their driveway. Keeping his eye on another son, 2-year-old Paul, in the yard nearby, he said he was unaware Frederick was behind the car.

GIRL STUMBLER

The 22-month-old girl, Jane Eileen Miller, of Dillsburg R. 2, died in Harrisburg Hospital less than 24 hours after being run over by a power mower her father, Charles, was using to cut the grass at the Lutheran Church in Franklintown. The father said Jane stumbled in front of the mower.

The girl who suffocated was Susanne Davidson, of Natrona Heights. Her body was found in the ice chest in their home by her mother.

Among the traffic accidents, Clayton Doyle, 39, of York R. 8, was killed when his car overturned on a rural road near York; and Mrs. John F. Uravish, about 50, of Pittsburgh, was fatally injured when the car in which she was riding plunged over a 50-foot embankment on the Pennsylvania Turnpike about a mile north of the Blue Mountain Tunnel on a stretch of road under construction.

Near Pittston, Henry Wardak, 35, of Philadelphia, drowned while swimming in the Susquehanna River.

Revolt

The rebels broadcast a revolutionary manifesto after seizing the telephone exchange which controls all radio lines, giving the impression at first that it was a nationwide revolt.

Police and troops were rushed to buildings where the rebels were holed up, but held their fire.

FIRE FEW SHOTS

Armed with pistols and light machineguns, the rebels fired when police approached the telephone building only 25 blocks from Government House where Frondizi was meeting with his political and military aides.

The rebels claimed in their brief broadcast that they had no political links.

A law student, Hector Corres, among those who surrendered at the radio station, identified the leader of the rebels as his brother, Air Force Commander Vicente Corres.

Declaring that calm prevailed throughout the rest of the country, the communique said "the armed forces with the support of the people guarantee peace and constitutional security."

The president did not appear disturbed by the uprising. Almost immediately he telephoned assurance to his economic minister, Roberto Alemann, at the Inter-American Conference that everything was normal in Buenos Aires. He told Alemann not to worry about the revolt and continue working at the parley.

Family Sues For $300,000 Damages

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The family of Richard C. Kline, 21, of Red Lion, is seeking $300,000 damages for Kline's death in an attempt to rescue a fellow-worker from a molasses tank.

The suit, filed Friday in U.S. District Court here, said Kline had been exposed to "noxious fumes and impure air" last year while he was in the tank.

Charged with negligence were the National Molasses Co. of Oreland; the Highland Tank Manufacturers, which built the tank, and the F. M. and P. W. Moyer Co., which installed it.

YOU — INDIVIDUAL

No matter how you figure it, you are important — unless you think you are not.In the first place, remember there is not another person in all the world like you. None with the same make-up of features or ability, hopes or aspirations. You are one of Emerson's "uniques."You may have handicaps. Everyone has. The fact remains, however, that you have something no one else has; and it is up to you to find out what that something is and make use of it to the full.You are an individual; and this world rests upon individuals. It is a structure of individuals.
For everything that is wrong with the world you bear certain responsibility no matter how small. Every time you do something of benefit to someone else you do something that is of benefit to the world at large. No man lives for himself alone.A strong nation is a nation where strong men and women predominate.If you want to see times better, if you want to see conditions better, if you want to see improve-ity and shoulder some task.This world is full of things that are twisted and wrong; but every time you do something that makes things just a little more right you help to take out the twists and kinks.Life is full of beauty and surpassing wonders. Some of this beauty—much of it—most people miss. Many of the wonders of life are never discovered—because people with eyes make no effort to see.One of the strange facts of life is that frequently those who have the most to bear and to suffer, understand the most and gain the most.If you would rise, if you would grow, if you would increase in knowledge and find real happiness, you must accept responsibility and serve to the utmost with what you have — for you have something that no other person in the world has.With this gift, or gifts, pick up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twice

now American presidents and their vice presidents — because Congress wouldn't do anything on it—have had to agree between themselves on how a vice president takes over for a disabled president.President Kennedy said Thursday he and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson have made such an agreement. It turned out to be a word for word, the same as former President Dwight D. El-senhower made with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon on March 3, 1958.There's a hole in it but it's the kind of hole which may never be filled.

WHAT IS INABILITY

The Constitution says that, in case of a president's inability to discharge his powers and duties,
the vice president will take over.
But it doesn't say what an inability is or who decides when inability exists and when it ends.There has been argument over this constitutional clause since the Constitution was put together. But Eisenhower's heart attack in 1955 alerted him and the country to the need for some clarification—just in case.His two attorneys general—first Herbert Brownell and then William P. Rogers—with the help of their Justice Department lawyers examined the problem and proposed to Congress, in 1956 and 1957, that it act on a constitutional amendment. It didn't.

AGREEMENT WITH NIXON

So Eisenhower, with the help of Rogers and the best advice the latter could get, made an agreement with Nixon—an agreement now duplicated by Kennedy and Johnson with the help of the President's brother, Attorney General Robert Kennedy.Robert Kennedy sees eye-to-eye with Rogers on the wording of the agreement and the constitutional thinking behind it. A lot of questions can be raised about it.But the two attorneys general thought they had reached a reasonable solution. It should be noted these two agreements applied only to the four men involved. No future president or vice president is bound by them.

is bound by them.

UP TO CONGRESS

They will be free to make any other agreements they wish, or none. But since Kennedy andJohnson thought the Eisenhower-Nixon arrangement was good for them, their successors in the White House are likely to do the same until, or unless, Congress finally decides to act. That's unlikely.

The agreement says:

1. If the president becomes unable to carry out his duties he will—if he's able to—notify the vice president who will then act as president until the president's disability ends.2. If the disabled president for some reason can't tell the vice president to take over for him temporarily, the vice president will consult with people he considers "appropriate" about taking over the presidency until the disability ends.The ground rules seem pretty narrow here for Johnson. If Kennedy became too disabled to tell Johnson to take over for him, it's a sure bet the vice president would not make a move without consulting Kennedy's brother, the attorney general.

QUESTIONS ARE RAISED

3. The president will decide when his disability ends and resume his duties.All three of these arrangements raise questions but not more than the third in which a disabled president decides when he is no longer disabled. Suppose those around him still think he's too disabled to run the country. What then?It's one of those iffy questions.
Government lawyers say they prefer to rely on the value language of No. 3 at the present and then try to deal with particular facts and circumstances as they might arise.While Brownell and Rogers asked Congress in vain for a constitutional amendment to clear up the whole business once for all, House Speaker Sam Rayburn thought a simple congressional act might do.

U.S. LAWYERS DISAGREE

Government lawyers disagreed.
They said such an act would be challenged in the courts as unconstitutional. But the Kennedy-Johnson agreement is neither an act of Congress nor a constitutional amendment.Therefore might not anything Johnson did, while acting as president for a disabled Kennedy, be challenged in court, too? For instance: if Johnson signed a bill which meant a loss of millions of dollars to someone.But that's hypothetical at this point. Rogers and Robert Ken-nedy feel they have done their research and that the courts would uphold as constitutional the agreement they worked out.

EARTH'S TIME WAS PUZZLE TO
RED SPACEMAN

By FRANK CAREY

Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet

cosmonaut Gherman Titov, smart operator though he is, must have been hard pressed to know just what day of the week it was during his flight around the world.His whizzing capsule played hop-scotch with the earth's time during the 25-hour flight — with Sunday becoming Saturday beneath Titov, then Sunday again, then Monday, then back to Sunday again, and finally, Monday once more for Titov's triumphant homecoming in the Soviet Union.These seeming tricks of time are due to the fact that in his 18,000 m.p.h., 17-orbit flight starting last Sunday at 9 a.m. Moscow time, Titov crossed both the International dateline plus the earth's imaginary "Midnight Meridian" 17 times.

COMPILES LOG

So says Wellman Chamberlin of the National Geographic Society, who has compiled a unique log of Titov's flight, utilizing a special world globe equipped with measuring tools to enable users to plot graphically the courses of satellites and rockets.Chamberlain said that in terms of the "local times" for different parts of the earth crossed by the orbit of the Vostok II spaceship, Titov:1. During both of his first two 88-minute whirls around the world figuratively flew back into Saturday, the day before he left, but quickly got back into Sunday each time.2. During the rest of his trip, he periodically flew from Sunday into Monday and back again—though finally winding up in Moscow on Monday.3. If he had stayed aloft another seven hours, he would have run into Tuesday over part of the world, though still landing in the Soviet Union on Monday.

LOOK FOR TUESDAY

The factors involved in these gymnastics of time and Titov are these:1. The International Dateline — that's the meridian extending essentially from pole to pole across the Pacific Ocean. When you cross it, going west to east in a ship, an airplane or a spaceship, you "lose a day."2. The "Midnight Meridian"—an imaginary semicircle in the heavens which determines local midnight for the particular parts of the earth passing beneath it as the planet constantly rotates in a west-to-east direction. Thus, when you pass it, going in the right direction, you "gain a day."

Mantle, Maris Belt Homers; Battey Drives Two Out Of Park To Beat Detroit 2-1

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle has his 44th home run, and Roger Maris finally belted No. 42, but the New York Yankees' home run hero of the moment is Earl Battey—who does his work for the Minnesota Twins.

It was a pair of home runs by the Twins' catcher that beat Detroit 2-1 Friday night and dropped the second-place Tigers four games behind New York in the American League race, after Mantle and Maris had unloaded in a 12-5 breeze at Washington.

Mickey's home run, his first since last Sunday, put him 14 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record-60 pace in 1927. Maris, hitting his first in eight games, is 11 games ahead of the Babe.

Baltimore smacked Boston 6-3, Cleveland defeated Los Angeles 3-2 and the Chicago White Sox beat Kansas City 1-0.

12th FOR BATTEY

Battey's 12th home run of the season broke a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning for the Twins and made Pete Ramos (9-13) a winner in his duel with Paul Foytack (7-7). Each right-hander allowed six hits.

The Yankees, after scoring twice in the first inning, made it a romp with six runs in the third against Joe McClain (7-13). Elston Howard and winning right-hander Ralph Terry (8-1) hit two-run doubles in the big inning—in which Maris was retired twice and Mantle once for the three outs.

Mickey's homer came with one on in the seventh. Maris got off a solo shot in the fifth. Both were off lefty Pete Burnside.

Brooks Robinson and Jim Gentile homered for the Orioles in a 12-hit barrage against Chet Nichols (2-2) and two relievers. Billy Hoft (2-3) was the winner, with relief help.

The Indians twice had to come from behind against the Angels. Ken McBride (9-9) before winning their fourth in a row on Willie Kirkland's sacrifice fly in the eighth inning.

A third-inning home run by Luis Aparicio decided it for the White Sox and southpaw Billy Pierce, who gained the seventh 1-0 victory of his career, tops among active Al pitchers, with a five-hitter. Jim Archer (8-7) was the loser.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The 60-meter barrier has been broken in the discus throw.

Jay Silvester, 23, a United States Army lieutenant from Trenton, Utah, threw the discus 198 feet 84 inches Friday night — more than 2 feet beyond the listed world record. He made the throw during an international track and field meet.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Established stars Louise Suggs and Betsy Rawls passed the halfway mark as co-leaders in the $7,500 Kansas City Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Miss Rawls, of Spartanburg, S.C., shot a 3-under-par 71 Friday to gain a 36-hole tie with Miss Suggs, the first round leader, at 147. That is one stroke under par for the distance.

EAGLES MEET BEARS TONIGHT

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — The National Football League champion Philadelphia Eagles meet the Chicago Bears tonight in a big test for both clubs which will be playing their first league exhibition.

A crowd of more than 16,000 was expected to be on hand for the battle which will pit Eagles' quarterback Sonny Jurgensen against the Bears' Ed Brown in Hershey Stadium.

The Bears will be a more rugged test than the College All-Stars whom the Eagles defeated 28-14 last Friday night behind three touchdown passes by Jurgensen.

Coach Nick Skorich plans four changes in the starting unit. Ted Dean, who got a late training start because of Army duty, will start at fullback in place of Clarence Peaks, and Tim Brown is expected to be at left halfback in place of Billy Barnes.

Gene Cossage will replace Stan Campbell at right guard and Chuck Weber will be at middle linebacker on defense in place of Bob Pellegrini.

Peaks and Campbell still are somewhat weakened from virus attacks which struck seven players during the week.

SPAHN JOINS PLANK, GROVE IN "300" SET

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Warren Spahn, the Milwaukee Braves' pitching marvel, laughed at Father Time and set his goals higher today as a member of baseball's exclusive 300-victory club.

The 40-year-old southpaw wonder became the 13th hurler in major league history to achieve victory No. 300 Friday night as he edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1 on a masterful six-hitter.

"I'm going to stay active as long as possible," Spahn said before heading for a party attended by teammates and friends. "My next goal is to win 20 games this year—and I'm going to have to go some with only 12 so far."

JOINS PLANK, GROVE

Spahn joined Plank and Lefty Grove, the only living member of the "300" set, as the only southpaws to reach the lofty mark. Grove, reported seriously ill, was the last pitcher to win 300.

Spahn said that the tension mounted as he received scores of calls and telegrams throughout the day.

"About six o'clock tonight I wished it was game time," he said. "Then along in the late evening I knew they were saving Ernie Banks for me. The tension mounts and after a while it begins to get to you. I was never happier than when that final out came."

40,775 SEE GAME

Spahn finally faced Banks, pinchhitting in the ninth. Ernie hit a bouncer to Eddie Mathews for what appeared to be the last out, but the Braves' All-Star third baseman overthrew first for an error. Spahn, unruffled, then got pinch-hitter Jim McAnany to fly to short right to end the game.

Spahn said that when he took a look at the crowd of 40,775 he was reminded of opening day in 1963 after the Braves' move from Boston.

"How did I feel? About nine years older," Spahn said with a grin. "After that, though, I first thought of a no-hitter, then a shut-out and then had to say the heck with it and tried for the win."

TAHOE CITY, Calif. (AP) — Another of America's world record-breaking girl swimmers, Sylvia Ruuska, has quit competitive swimming on the sunny side of 20.

Miss Ruuska, 18, a sophomore at Stanford University, made the announcement Friday.

Two United States Olympic gold medal winners — Lynn Burke, 17, Flushing, N.Y., and Chris Von Saltza, 17, Saratoga, Calif., — announced earlier that this would be their last summer of competition. All say you can't train and go to college too.

Warren Spahn Hurls 6-Hitter Against Chicago Cubs To Win 300th; Says It Was Tough One

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tough games? Warren Spahn has pitched plenty of them. Remember the next to last day of the 1956 season? He pitched his heart out and lost 2-1 in 12 innings at St. Louis—and the loss knocked Milwaukee out of the National League pennant.

That same season he won No. 200—and he had to go 11 innings to nail it, 4-3 over Philadelphia.

Tough games? Maybe so. But none, Spahn confesses, was as tough as the one he won Friday night.

That was No. 300, a six-hit spine-tingler as the 40-year-old wonder beat the Chicago Cubs 2-1 and became the 13th pitcher ever to win 300 in the majors, an achievement managed by only two other left-handers.

HOMER WINS GAME

To do it, Spahn had to knock in the first run himself, with a fifth-inning sacrifice fly, and out-dueled Jack Curtis, a kid southpaw who was a 5-year-old when Spahn pitched his first game for the Braves in 1942. It wasn't decided until Gino Cimoli hit a home run in the eighth inning.

Spahn's success overshadowed the pennant race, in which San Francisco beat second-place Cincinnati and dropped the Reds 1½ games behind the idle Los Angeles Dodgers. Pittsburgh beat Philadelphia 6-0 in a game called after 6 1/3 innings because of rain—and officially eliminated the last place Phils from the race with their 78th defeat, their 14th in a row.

"TOUGHEST PITCHED"

"This was the toughest game I ever pitched," a smiling, seated Spahn admitted amidst the cameras and champagne in the Braves' dressing room in Milwaukee's County Stadium.

Ernie Banks, the Cubs' ailing slugger, pinch hit with two out in the ninth and reached first on a throwing error by third baseman Ed Mathews. Jim McAnany then batted for Curtis (7-7) and Spahn got him on a soft fly for the last out.

The Giants, after blowing a 1-0 lead, broke a 2-2 tie in the sixth on a two-run single by Orlando Cepeda. Left-hander Jim O'Toole (11-9), who singled for the Reds' runs in the fifth, was the loser. Juan Marichal (10-7), a right-hander, was the winner.

Bob Clemente drove in two runs with a double and a home run for the Pirates, who roughed up Robin Roberts (1-9) on his return from the disabled list with a five-run first inning. Bob Friend (12-13) was the winner.

U. S. Rifle Team Wins Shoot Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — The United States 10-man international team Friday won the Pershing Trophy small bore rifle match, scoring 3,970 points out of a possible 4,000.

The British team finished second with 3,961 and the Canadian squad was third with 3,935.

Members of the 1961 winning American team included R. E. Oster of Upper Darby, Pa., and J. E. Sundstrom of Glen Ridge, N.J.

The Turks added the playoff title to the regular season championship Friday evening by defeating the Clubbers 3-2 in the third and deciding game of their three-game series.

The Turks topped the Clubbers 10-7 on Wednesday but the Clubbers came back to knot the series Thursday evening with a 6-2 triumph.

ROBERTS FAILS TO STOP PHILS' LOSING STREAK

PITTSBURGH (AP) — In 1965, when the Philadelphia Phillies had dropped 13 games in a row, ace right-hander Robin Roberts went out and halted the losing streak with a victory over the Braves.

The Phils went into Friday night's contest against the Pirates with another 13-game losing streak. Roberts, just off the disabled list, again was the pitcher. But this time the veteran hurler didn't prove to be the "stopper."

The Pirates racked him for five runs in the first inning and went on for an easy 6-0 victory in a rain-shortened 6 1/3 inning game.

The defeat for the Phillies gives them the longest losing streak in the major leagues this season and equals an all-time club record.

Bill Vardon initiated Roberts back onto the able-bodied list with a single. Don Hoak doubled to left, scoring Vardon. Hoak stopped at third on Bob Skinner's single and scored on Dick Stuart's base hit.

CLEMENTE HOMERS

The National League's leading hitter, Roberto Clemente, then cracked a double, scoring Skinner. After Smokey Burgess lined into a double play which took Clemente off second, Dick Groat slashed a bad-hop single and Stuart scored.

Groat moved to second on a passed ball and came the rest of the way on Bob Friend's single.

The other Pirate tally came on Clemente's 20th home run off Roberts in the third.

Roberts, who hadn't pitched since July 10 because of a bad right knee, suffered his ninth setback in 10 decisions. Friend picked up his 12th victory against 13 defeats.

In today's contest, either John Buzhardt (3-12) or Frank Sullivan (3-10) was slated to try and halt the Phillies' streak. Wilmer Mizell (5-8) was to go for the Pirates.

RACE DRIVER DROPS UNION

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Stock car race driver Glenn (Fireball) Roberts has abruptly pulled out of the Federation of Professional Athletes, declaring he fears that his affiliation with the Teamsters Union may hurt rather than help drivers.

Roberts wrote and mailed to the Teamsters Friday his resignation from the athletes union, of which he had been temporary president.

Bill France, president of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR), said when told of Roberts' action:

WELCOME TO RACE

"As far as I am concerned, he is welcome to race for NASCAR as long as he pleases and I know he'll be welcomed back by his fellow drivers. I think in future years Fireball will regard his move as the best thing he ever did for sports in America."

Last Wednesday France had blackballed Roberts, Curtis Turner and all other drivers who signed up with the union, declaring they might not race in NASCAR-sanctioned events as long as they belonged to the FPA.

SWIM CHAMP IS DETHRONED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — At 17½, Chris Von Saltza is feeling old age creeping up on her. She already has announced that this is her last year of competition.

The point was emphasized to Chris Friday night in the second day of the women's national AAU outdoor swimming and diving championships in the 50-meter Kelly Pool.

First she was dethroned as queen of the 100-meter freestyles by Robyn Johnson, a 15-year-old unknown from Arlington, Va. Then she was soundly beaten in the 200 meter backstroke by 15-year-old Nina Harmer (2:35.0) of the Philadelphia Vesper Boat Club.

To cap the evening for the brash youngsters, 14-year-old Donna de Varona of Lafayette, Calif., broke her own world record for the 400 meter individual medley by two seconds in 5:34.5 and Jean Dellekamp of Shelbyville, Ind., copped the 200 meter breaststroke easily in 2:56.7.

The older set took one of the five titles decided Friday when 18-year-old Joel Dina Lenzi of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., succeeded Patsy Willard, 20, of Phoenix, as 3-meter diving champion.

NEW COURSE RECORD
Bob Klingaman, York, set a new course record for 18 holes when he fired a 67 Friday afternoon at the Conocodol Country Club at Fayetteville, eclipsing the old mark of 68. Mac McComas, also of York, shot a 69.

The Yankees scored four runs in the first two innings and moved ahead 7-4 with three tallies in the fourth. Jeff Seiferd and John McLaughlin drew walks. Dick Crist singled and Jack Inskip followed with a line double to account for the runs.

The Gettysburg Little League All-Stars assured themselves of a berth in the finals of the first annual Adams County Little League tournament by wallopping Upper Adams 22-3 Friday evening at the recreation park before a capacity crowd.

The loss dropped Upper Adams (2-1) into the loser's bracket. On Monday, Littlestown (2-1) and Fairfield (1-1) meet here at 6 p.m. and the winner of that game opposes Upper Adams Wednesday evening. Gettysburg (3-0) tangles with the winner of Wednesday's contest on Friday evening. A victory that night would give Gettysburg the title but a loss would mean another game between the teams on Monday, August 21, due to the double elimination setup.

New Varieties Of Alfalfa Available; Offer High Yield

By FRANK ZETTEL
County Farm Agent

Farmers planning to make new alfalfa seedlings in August are urged to use the new higher yielding alfalfa varieties. Quality seed of the new varieties is available from local dealers.

Vernal is a wilt-resistant, high yielding, very winter-hardy variety adapted for growing on well-drained soils in all counties in Pennsylvania. It is dark green, very leafy and fine stemmed. At full bloom the flower color ranges from white to light blue through green and yellow to purple. This variety is preferred where long lived stands are desired.

When Vernal is not available, Buffalo can be substituted for long-lived stands. DuPuits and Alfa are nonwilt resistant, high yielding vigorously growing alfalfa with dark green leaves. They have shown excellent seedling vigor enabling them to become established when fall seeded. They generally recover faster after cutting than other alfalfa varieties. These varieties tend to become stemmy as they mature, thus for better utilization, first cutting should be made by early bloom stage for silage. These varieties and other nonwilt resistant varieties should not be seeded on land where wild diseases are beginning to appear.

Narragansett is a nonwilt resistant, high yielding, winter-hardy, fine stemmed variety with flower colors ranging from yellow to purple. This alfalfa appears to be able to establish better than other alfalfas on heavy soils where drainage is marginal. It will probably have its greatest use in the northern and high elevation counties of the state.

Atlantic is a nonwilt resistant, high yielding variety recommended for two or four year stands.

"BARN WARMERS" OUT

Forty years ago dairymen could keep some low producing cows around in the winter to keep the water system from freezing up, but "those days are gone forever."

With today's big investments in equipment, cows, labor and other costs, we can no longer afford to have just "barn warmers."

All a farmer needed years ago was a wheelbarrow, a couple of forks, milk stool, a few milk cows and pails and a wooden cooling tank and he had all the required dairy equipment. Today with milking machines, mechanical coolers or bulk tanks, barn cleaners, silo unloaders, running water, etc., a dairyman has several thousand dollars tied up rather than less than $150.

Only good producing cows will pay for this kind of an investment and unless a dairyman is getting good production from his herd he had better go easy in getting too much money invested in equipment.

Even so, the average dairyman will have more than $1,100 per cow invested with costs including: Cow, $275; interest, taxes, etc., $50; labor, $100; feed, $225; equipment, $25, and barn, $500, for a total of $1,175.

With this big present-day investment, it's important to spend at least one-half of one per cent to find out what each cow in the herd is doing toward paying for this expenditure and leaving something for the owner. Thousands of cows on Pennsylvania farms are not even paying for their feed, to say nothing of the other items.

PLAN AHEAD FOR PULLETS

Experienced poultrymen know that a well-grown lot of pullets is the primary requisite for profitable egg production. With good feeding and management, satisfactory results often are achieved in mediocre poultry buildings. But, better housing often means the difference between profit and loss to less experienced poultrymen and when the price-cost squeeze occurs. In either case, good husbandry is required.

To achieve maximum results poultrymen should follow a systematic program of flock replacement. Adequate housing is provided by marketing yearling layers after production falls to the point where profitmaking is questionable.

SHOULD BE DELOUSED

Time should be available for cleaning, remodeling, or repairing buildings and equipment prior to housing new pullets. Treat buildings to destroy parasites and vermin.

New pullets should be deloused in range buildings or shortly after housed in permanent quarters. Less forced culling will be required later if pullets are selected for uniformity of development and maturity and housed in separate pens on that basis.

Keep feed consumption in pace with increased egg production, so body weight can be increased or maintained for long periods of high production.

Chances of success lessen when management fails to measure up to the potentialities of well-grown pullets, good housing and quality feeds.

The earliest recognized inhabitants of North America are Folsom Man and Sandia Man in the United States and Tepepan Man in Mexico. They go back $0,000 to 20,000 years.

GRANT STARS IN 60TH SHOW IN NEW MOVIE

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Cary Grant is making his 60th movie. Like the majority of the others, it's a comedy.

Still an also-ran in the Oscar derby, he admitted he could probably garner an academy nomination with a drama. But Cary is more interested in box office gold than in plated statuettes. And he likes comedies.

"It's good for an audience to laugh or cry, because either one is a release," he commented. "I happen to like to hear people laugh. There is no more pleasant sound to me than to go into the Radio City Music Hall and hear that immense place filled with laughter."

NEW COMEDY

The new comedy is called "Touch of Mink," and it combines him for the first time with Doris Day—"an excellent comedienne, and there aren't many around any more."

Cary has constructed the project with infinite care, as always. Though he never takes producer's credit, his fine hand is evident in all the preparations.

Cary was having a rare day off from shooting. He roamed his office and commented on film comedy.

MORE CHALLENGE

"Comedy is much more of a challenge," said he. "A drama can be greeted by silence and still be successful. A comedy must draw laughter. And you never know if it will until you're all finished and it's too late to change it."

Despite the complex nature of the Cary Grant comedy, the premise is simple, he said.

"You take a man who seems to have every advantage and you place him in an untenable position," he explained. "The laughter comes from the audience's reaction to his discomfort and their delight that it is happening to him, and not them."

MANY BILLS ACTED UPON BY GOVERNOR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence has vetoed legislation that would have required traffic administrators in other states to furnish certified notices of convictions of Pennsylvania drivers involved in traffic violations.

"This bill would create a tremendous administrative burden on officials of other states in the performance of their duties," the governor said in his veto statement released Thursday.

The governor also vetoed another measure that would have required persons who violate dog laws to be brought before the nearest magistrate.

TO CODIFY MILK LAWS

The problem, said Lawrence, is determining which magistrate is the closest, and then the closest magistrate is not always available.

In other action, the governor signed into law bills that will:

Codify the state's milk laws to tighten up the definition of milk and dairy products.

Tighten requirements for labeling, registration by manufacturers and reports of sales and tonnage fees for limestone.

EMPLOYER REQUIREMENTS

Require employers to furnish placements for artificial limbs or eyes and furnish continued medical care for employees injured on the job who are covered by workmen's compensation.

Require chiropractors to attend annual postgraduate educational conferences as a condition for renewal of their biennial licenses.

Increase employer's liability for burial costs under the Workmen's compensation Act from $500 to $750.

Appropriate $191,419 for state park facility improvements; $19,984 for the state park and harbor commission for development of picnic sites and fishermen's parking areas; $10,700 to the Valley Forge Park Commission to replace sanitary systems in Washington's Headquarters, rehabilitate Von Steuben's quarters and install heating facilities at Varnum quarters.

Appropriate $57,052 to the Justice Department for capital improvements at state correctional institutions.

TOURIST PROMOTION

Appropriate $3,360 to the State Historical and Museum Commission for development of the Landis Valley Farm Museum.

Provide workmen's compensation for national guardsmen injured or killed in the line of duty when the federal government provides no compensation.

Appropriate $100,000 to the Bureau of Port Operations of Philadelphia for maintenance, repair and improvement of the Port of Philadelphia.

Appropriate $15,000 to the Military Affairs Department for payment to the Civil Air Patrol for rescue and other aviation services.

Appropriate $200,000 to the Commerce Department for grants to local agencies for tourist promotion.

1 Killed, 3 Hurt In Two-Car Crash

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A vacation-bound Sutton, W.Va., woman was killed Friday in a two-car collision on Route 119 in Hempfield Twp.

Mrs. Dorothy Floyd, 64, was dead on arrival at Frick Community Hospital, Mount Pleasant.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her brother-in-law, Thornton Floyd, 68, of Point Marion, Pa. He escaped injury.

Three other persons were hurt in the crash. Mrs. Ruth Floyd, 61, wife of Thornton, is in fair condition in Frick Hospital with chest injuries.

John Barchiesi, 26, of Crabtree, driver of the other car, was taken to Westmoreland Hospital here with head injuries. A passenger, Gilbert Siare, also of Crabtree, suffered minor injuries.

Infant Is Killed In Car Accident

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—A one-year-old Erie boy was fatally injured in a two-car accident on Route 19 three miles South of Erie Thursday night.

Gregory J. Williams of Erie died in St. Vincent Hospital of severe head injuries.

Three members of the youth's family were hurt in the crash. Robert, the father and driver of one auto, was taken to St. Vincent Hospital with face and leg injuries. Mrs. Phyllis Williams, the mother, suffered a broken arm, and Mark Williams, 2, was detained for head and leg injuries.

State police said the Williams car rolled over after being sideswiped by an auto driven by Albert Keller, 18, of Erie. Police said the brakes apparently failed on the Keller car and said it swerved into the Williams auto to avoid a rear-end collision.

PERPIGNAN, France (AP) — Gen. Jean Gilles, 57, commander of French airborne troops at Suez in 1956, died Thursday of a heart attack.

Kennedy-Johnson Pact On Successor Follows Eisenhower's Pattern

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — If the time ever comes, one Kennedy or another apparently is going to have a hand in deciding if President Kennedy is unable to carry on and should give up his office temporarily.

By terms of an agreement between Kennedy and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson announced Thursday, the President will decide—if he is able to—that he can't carry out his duties and ask Johnson to take over until he recovers.

But if he should be stricken to the point where he couldn't advise Johnson, the vice president has agreed to consult with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and other Cabinet members before he assumes the top job. The attorney general is the president's brother.

TO MAKE DECISION

In any event, the chief executive would make the decision on when he would resume the active presidency.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said the consultation with Robert Kennedy and Cabinet members was not binding on Johnson, since some disaster might make it impossible for the vice president to hold such talks.

Some politicians thought there was little legally binding about the gentleman's agreement between the chief executive and the No. 2 man in the government. They said the question of whether a vice president could take over as president and then step down again has never been settled.

SIMILAR TO IKE'S

The Kennedy-Johnson agreement, made before their inaugurations, followed closely a similar agreement between former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon on March 3, 1958.

Salinger said it was not written or signed as an official document but remained an oral agreement.

Nixon furnished Johnson plenty of precedent for consulting with the attorney general in deciding whether the president was incapacitated.

In Eisenhower's heart attack and two other serious illnesses, Nixon sought and followed advice from his friend, William P. Rogers, who began as an assistant attorney general and then moved up to the Cabinet.

Salinger said that Atty. Gen. Kennedy had completed a study of the situation last week, preparing a lengthy opinion supporting the view of "the great majority of constitutional scholars" that the arrangement is legal.

Girl Dies After Bathtub Scalding

MERCER, Pa. (AP) — A 21-month-old Mercer County girl has died in Mercer Cottage Hospital after she and her brother were scalded in the family bathtub.

Theresa Maria Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, of Mercer died Thursday. Her brother, John Jr., 3, is in fair condition at the hospital with burns.

They were scalded Wednesday when one of the children turned on the hot water tap as they played in the bathtub.

TWO YOUTHS STEAL YACHT

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Charles Thomasset strolled down the pier at San Pedro harbor to work on his yacht, the Los Amigos, a 45-foot schooner.

They told investigators they prepared for their journey by checking out two books from the San Pedro library.

The titles? "Deep Sea Sailing" and "Law for Yachtsmen."

On their way to the police station the boys directed officers to the place they had left the bicycles. But they were gone—apparently stolen.

"I guess nobody's honest," one of the teen-agers said.

SMALL NATIONS ASK GUARANTEE FULL SHARE OF U. S. BILLIONS

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—Latin America's smaller nations today were challenging their bigger neighbors to make sure they get their share of President Kennedy's $20-billion Alliance for Progress aid program.

In the maneuvering at the Inter-American Economic Conference here the United States is standing on the sidelines as a benevolent neutral.

The smaller nations, after winning one victory Thursday, appeared to have enough votes to insure creation of the controversial commission of "seven wise men" to coordinate national development plans.

URUGUAY LEADS FIGHT

Uruguay, smallest country in South America, is leading the campaign, based on evident fears that otherwise the big nations will reap most of the benefits from the U.S. drive to bolster Latin America against the twin threats of communism and Castroism.

The United States proposed creation of the commission when the conference began but pulled back when Argentina, Brazil, Mexico, Chile and Peru demanded that it be demoted to an advisory group. The larger nations, which already have their own development programs, want to deal directly with the United States and the various lending agencies instead of going through an over-all hemispheric board.

Bolivia, threatened by revolutionary ferment, won the first small-nation victory with a motion calling for priority to aid to small countries. Brazil, which has serious economic troubles in her own

They cased the yacht landing, they said, and picked out a vessel. But it was gone when they returned so they took the Los Amigos, a 45-foot schooner.

They told investigators they prepared for their journey by checking out two books from the San Pedro library.

On their way to the police station the boys directed officers to the place they had left the bicycles. But they were gone—apparently stolen.

Los Angeles Gets First Summer Rain

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lightning storms and rain struck the Los Angeles area early Friday. Lightning set an oil derrick tower afire in Beverly Hills. Bolts hit several other communities.

Torrential rain hit Los Angeles International Airport and Van Nuys in the San Fernando Valley. Sprinkles fell over the entire Los Angeles area.

It was the first measurable rain since last spring.

Numerous power failures were attributed to the lightning. Electrical storms swept desert areas Thursday.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Walter H. Girdler Jr., 48, Los Angeles industrialist and son of the founder of the Girdler Steel Corp. in Louisville, Ky., died Thursday of a heart attack. He was a vice president of the Girdler Company before its merger with Chemtron Corp. of Chicago, but resigned in 1958 and came to Los Angeles. He was born in Louisville.

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—William B. Calhoun, 80, former president of the National Association of Insurance Agencies and the Calhoun Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, died Thursday.

northeast, sought to change the wording to read "regions" in direct need.

The Bolivian motion won 19-1, with the United States voting alongside the Cuban regime whose revolutionary influence it seeks to counteract with the alliance for Progress program.

The conference has attracted private investors from many parts of the world — representatives of railroads, banks, power and automobile interests among others.

They are showing an interest in pouring billions of dollars into the U.S.-sponsored aid program—but first are seeking to find out how it can be done best, the risks involved and particularly what Latin American business interests are willing to contribute.

Success Just Seemed To Happen To Pretty Dorothy Collins, Star Of "Candid Camera"

By PAUL GERARD

WHEN the arrangements were being made for an interview with Dorothy Collins for this article, the picture kept recurring in our mind of the pretty young girl next door with the white blouse and black tie who made famous—and in turn became famous as a result of it—the cigarette commercial on "Your Hit Parade" in the early years of television.

It has been a long road and a most successful one since the "Be Happy, Go Lucky" jingle became her trademark and the association paved her way to success.

Actually, Dorothy hasn't changed a bit. She is still as lovely and charming albeit the white blouse and tie are gone, and she is now the mother of two lovely girls, Deborah, 6, and Elizabeth, 2.

WAS A VOCALIST

Although the question uppermost in our mind was how she, who has been primarily a singer, became a regular on "Candid Camera" (CBS-TV, Sundays, 10 to 10:30 p.m.), we were soon to learn that our Dorothy has ex-

The success of the commercial eventually led to her being signed for "Your Hit Parade." This in turn, led to national recognition. She starred on the program during its lengthy television run.

By late 1956 she began branching out as a major attraction at leading night clubs and hotels around the nation. During the last few years she has also been seen frequently as a guest star on the top variety shows, including "The Garry Moore Show," "The Pat Boone Show," "Perry Como Show" and "Music for a Summer Night." She has also starred on the summer stock circuit in "South Pacific," "Carousel" and "Rosalie."

PHENOMENAL SUCCESS

Thus we came back to our question of Dorothy and "Candid Camera." It seems that when plans were being made to revive "Candid Camera," Allen Funt decided he didn't want anyone with any set routines. "I want someone like Dorothy Collins," he said. Dorothy agreed to appear as a semiregular and participate in various candid film vignettes. And it was as simple as that.

to lady cigar smokers—and many more hilarious sequences.

BORN IN CANADA

What plans for the future has blonde, blue-eyed Dorothy? She frankly admits that she has none as far as show business is concerned, and that from the very start, she was never too ambitious. All her many successes "just seemed to happen," she says.

Dorothy was born in Windsor, Ont., Canada, on November 18, 1926. She recalls that an early childhood ambition was to follow in the footsteps of a favorite aunt and become a first-rate secretary. This changed, however, when her parents entered her in a local amateur song fest. She won first prize and, as a result, became a regular on a children's radio show originating in neighboring Detroit. After her school days, Dorothy was visiting friends in Chicago, and it was then that bandleader Raymond Scott happened to hear her sing. The rest is Collins history.

BETSY PALMER, pert panelist on "I've Got A Secret," would love to star in a musical some day. That's why she's been taking singing lessons.

"I don't know, though," she reports, "whether my voice would hold up. If I got laryngitis, what would I do? I'm not afraid to get up and face an audience. I don't dance but I could learn that in no time flat if I had to—if it were not too difficult. I love musicals. I like music."

TV fans have already heard Betsy sing. Once on the old Phil Silvers Show and once on the Garry Moore Show. The critics seemed pleasantly surprised.

MITCH'S DAUGHTER IN SUMMER STOCK

LIKE FATHER, like daughter! Mitch Miller's daughter, Andrea, is heading for a career behind the footlights. A graduate of the Neighborhood Playhouse, Andrea is appearing in summer stock this season for the first time. Incidentally, her dad's "Sing Along" program resumes on NBC-TV Thursday nights starting September 28.

THIS SEASON perhaps the most successful producing company in television is that of Bob Banner Associates. They had the pleasure of seeing two of their productions land among the top ten all year long. These were the Garry Moore Tuesday night variety show and the Sunday "Candid Camera" programs.

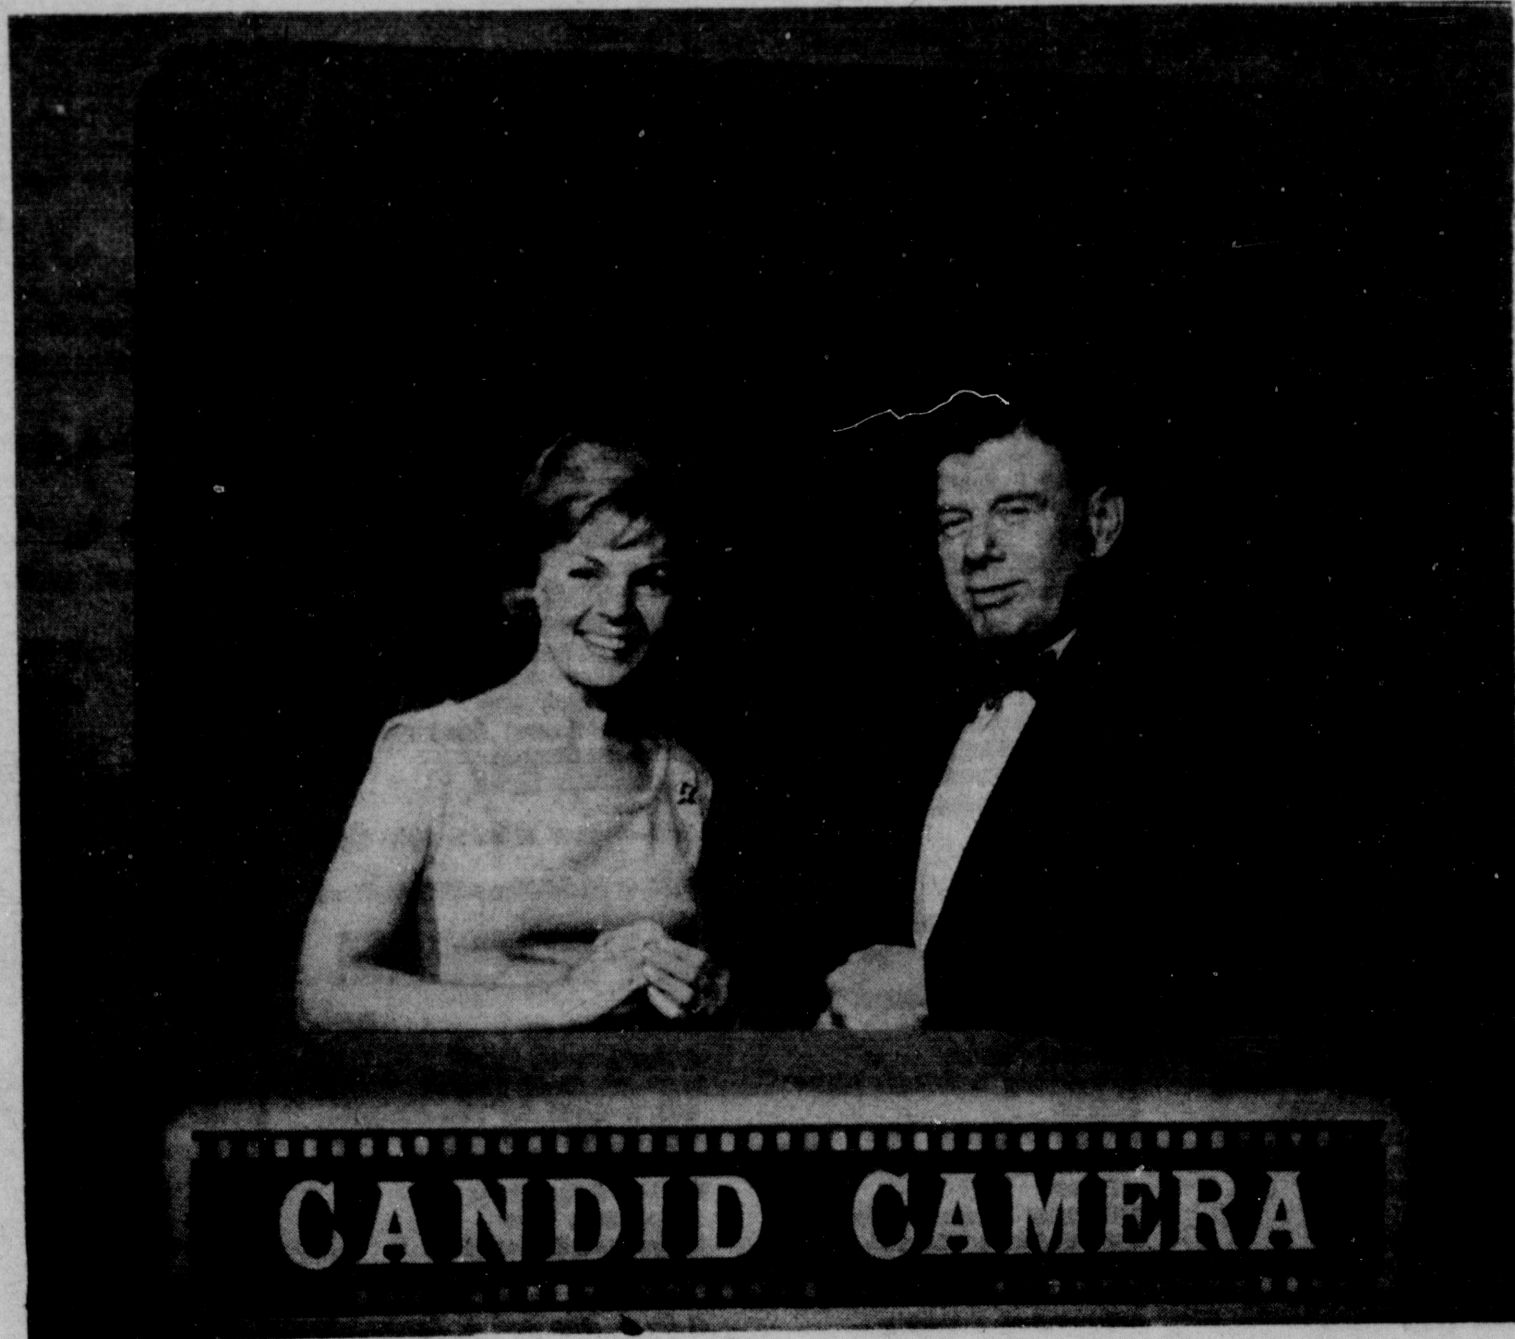

Coming up on Banner Associates schedule on September 27 will be "Jack Benny at Carnegie Hall" on CBS-TV. This is a special comprising taping of a salute given to Benny several months ago.

Back to back with the Banner special will be the Victor Borge special and this should make it one of the most memorable evenings on TV in many a moon.

MARY O'HARA, whose novel, "My Friend Flicka," became the basis for a durable TV series about life on a Wyoming ranch, has introduced her first stage effort, a musical comedy called "Oh! Wyoming!" which is being featured at the annual "Frontier Days" festival and rodeo in Cheyenne, Wyo. Plans are under way to adapt the new musical for an appearance as a TV special in the fall.

Associates, producers of the "Garry Moore Show," says a person's definition of a good salary depends on whether he's getting it or giving it!

Today's Huntley-Brinkley Report, acknowledge as the top news program in TV over NBC-TV Mondays through Fridays, was preceded by "The Newsreel Theater," the original news program in that time spot. It started February 16, 1948, over a small network of ten stations. It was actually a newsreel on television, with film supplied by Fox Movie-hibited a versatility perhaps little known to most TV fans.

Dorothy Collins and Arthur Godfrey of "Candid Camera"

In her early years as a vocalist with the "Raymond Scott Quintet," the petite songstress was called upon to act as mistress-of-ceremonies as well as a vocalist while Raymond Scott, who chartered her career and married her in 1952, left to take over as conductor of "The Hit Parade" orchestra for his brother, Mark Warnow after his death.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

In 1950 Scott was asked by a national tobacco company to create a "jingle" commercial for one of their products. Dorothy, without credit, sang the verse.

The success of "Candid Camera" has been phenomenal. It beat out its opposition, "The Loretta Young Show" in the ratings—a feat no other show has been able to accomplish. We feel Dorothy Collins has been a strong cog in the wheel of success of "Candid Camera." Viewers will long remember Miss Collins driving a car without any motor; asking passersby to change a tire while her husband naps in the back seat of the car; asking people at Idlewild Airport to look after her "little sister" who is making her first flight alone; smoking a cigar and assaying the reaction of the man-in-the-street

TV Tidbits

Leslie Uggams of "Sing Along With Mitch" notes that prices were once an indication of value but today they're an indication of nerve!

Barry Sullivan of "Tall Man" asserts there's nothing more annoying than a stuffed shirt with an empty head!

Tom Poston of "To Tell the Truth" defines a kleptomaniac as someone who helps himself because he can't help himself!

Feggie Castle of "Lawman" says, despite predictions by the experts that business will get better, it probably will!

Alan Reed, the voice of Fred Flintstone on ABC-TV, says advice is funny stuff. It is sold by a lawyer, given free by mother-in-law, but impossible to dispose of yourself!

Henry Morgan of "I've Got a Secret" notes that European travel this summer will broaden some Americans, will flatten others!

Joe Hamilton, of Bob Banner

A NEW HOUR filmed series "Frontier Circus" will make its debut in the fall on CBS-TV. The series will not be primarily concerned with the "show folk" of the circus itself, but with those people whose lives crossed the FRONTIER CIRCUS. Chill Wills, John Derek and Richard Jaeckel will be seen as regulars on the series. Top name guest stars will also be seen in each episode—appearing in shows already filmed have been Dan Duryea, Dick York, Aldo Ray, James Gregory, Brian Keith, Mickey Rooney, Eddie Albert and Rip Torn.

ROBERT YOUNG will star in a series "Window on Main St." which will premiere on Monday, October 2, CBS-TV 8:30-9 p.m. Incidentally, this is the same time spot which Mr. Young's previous series, "Father Knows Best," held down so successfully.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By MARSHALL TUCKEY

The word "Salad" actually means green leaves or stalks that are eaten uncooked. Salad is not a modern dish, as many believe, but was used by the Early Romans in their feasts. The origin of the meat and fish salads we serve today was an English dish called "salamagundi." The French influence is seen in the dressings used on these salads, thus "French dressing." In the United States, we combine all these different recipes to make salads one of our most popular foods. Plan to have your Sunday dinner with us. Reservations taken for lunches and banquets.

Smart Money

By JOHNNY CARSON
(Host of ABC-TV's "Who Do You Trust?")

Do you know married couples are smarter than single people? Recently, I began keeping tabs on "Who Do You Trust?" the series I conduct daily on ABC-TV. Married contestants outscored the nonmarried almost three-to-one.

I guess that's because husbands and wives stand a better chance as a team. They're more familiar with each other's strong and weak points. We had a couple who walked off with a $900 jackpot prize plus their winnings on the quiz. They used "marital" strategy. The husband trusted his wife to answer questions about the movies and song titles, categories in which he was weak. The wife trusted him for the answers on geography, history and famous names — in which he was the stronger.

SEEK RIGHT ANSWER

I think married people have a better fund of general information, especially when they are parents of school-age youngsters who keep asking them questions about their homework.

Also, married people try harder to get the right answer. It's like a bridge partner who overbids. He or she will never hear the end of it. I've listened to some of the off-stage remarks made by a wife to a husband who thought he knew it all, and I wouldn't want to be in hubby's shoes when he got home.

With unmarried couples, it's usually the more aggressive partner who takes the initiative whether he or she is really informed.

The "Purex Special for Women" feature this week, Tuesday, August 15, 10 to 11 p.m., E.D.T., will be "Mother and Daughter," a dramatic documentary about the problems of parents coping with adolescent children. Patricia Neal, Arthur Hill and Lynn Loring will star.

"THE INVESTIGATORS" played by James Franciscus, James Philbrook, Mary Murphy and Al Austin, is the title of a new hour-long series concerning New York's top insurance investigators, whose highly specialized job is to unravel the intricate cases presented by hundreds of important claims with which insurance companies are constantly faced.

JOEY BISHOP'S new series will premiere on Wednesday, 8:30 to 9, NBC-TV, September 20.
